PREAMBLE

The development of an anti-bullying and anti-violence (ABAV) plan is one among a set of actions implemented by the educational institution to ensure a healthy and safe environment.

The prevention of bullying and violence requires ongoing actions that depend, in particular, upon the continuous and consistent application of the rules of conduct and safety measures adopted by the governing board.

In accordance with the Education Act (EA), the rules of conduct must specify, in particular:

- the attitudes and conduct that are required of students at all times
- behaviors and verbal or other exchanges that are prohibited at all times, regardless of the means used - including social media
- the applicable disciplinary measures, according to the severity or repetitive nature of the prohibited act

Furthermore, the rules of conduct and the safety measures must be presented to the students and staff annually.

The code of conduct and safety measures and the ABAV plan are intended to ensure the best possible conditions for success and the proper operation of the Centre. They establish the expected everyday behaviors for fostering community life (e.g. respect, civility).

The objective of the anti-bullying and anti-violence plan is to develop ways of preventing the occurrence of any situation of bullying or violence, and to plan out the actions to be taken when such a situation unfortunately arises.

INTRODUCTION

In order to clarify the duties and responsibilities of the Centre and of its stakeholders, the Education Act (hereinafter, “EA”) requires every Centre to develop a plan aimed at preventing and putting an end to all forms of bullying and violence.

In particular, the EA therefore stipulates the following:

- The principal shall see to the implementation of the ABAV plan and shall promptly deal with any report or complaint received.
- The principal shall assist the governing board in the development, review and updating of the ABAV plan.
- The principal shall see to it that all staff are informed of the Centre’s rules of conduct & safety measures and the ABAV plan and procedures.
- Every school staff member shall collaborate in implementing the ABAV plan.
- The governing board is responsible for adopting the ABAV plan – including any updates, as proposed by the principal. The governing board shall see to it that the wording of the document is clear and will be understood.
- The document must indicate that it is possible to make a report or file a complaint concerning an act of sexual violence with the Regional Student Ombudsman; and that if dissatisfied with the follow-up by the institution, may file a complaint as provided for in the Act respecting the National Student Ombudsman.
- Information explaining the ABAV plan must be available to the parents of students under the age of majority.
- The ABAV plan must be reviewed annually and updated if necessary. The principal of the school sends a copy of the ABAV plan to the Regional Director who follows up as necessary with the National Student Ombudsman.
- Each year, the governing board shall evaluate the results achieved by the school with respect to preventing and dealing with bullying and violence.
- A document reporting on the evaluation must be made available to the students, staff and the school board who will follow up as necessary with the National Student Ombudsman.

ELEMENTS OF THE ANTI-BULLYING AND ANTI-VIOLENCE (ABAV) PLAN

ANALYSIS OF THE SITUATION

- ✓ Incident reports
- ✓ Anonymous reports
- ✓ Review and analysis of last year's ABAV plan
- ✓ In-house surveys (when implemented)

Findings

Over the past four years, RTC has recorded two cases of intimidation and one incident involving violence. The police were contacted in response to the situation of violence, and only one of the students involved returned to school. In the two cases of intimidation both matters were resolved promptly: in both cases the aggressors withdrew from the centre.

The majority of the students at RTC are between the ages of 20 and 60 (90%) – breakdown below:

The students range in age from sixteen to over sixty:

- 9% are between 16 and 20 years of age.
- 47% are in their twenties
- 20% in their thirties
- 17% in the forties
- 6% in their fifties
- 1% of our students are over the age of 60

This ABAV Plan will serve to remind and educate new students and staff about their roles and responsibilities in ensuring that RTC is a healthy and safe environment for everyone. It will also serve as a guide for appropriate follow-up should an unfortunate event arise.

PREVENTION MEASURES

At registration, the parent(s) of students under the age of 18 will be asked to read the Code of Conduct and the ABAV plan. The parent(s) will sign a document to acknowledge that they have read the Code of Conduct and the ABAV plan.

In the first week of class, teachers will review the code of conduct and the ABAV plan with their students. Students will sign a document to acknowledge that they have read and will adhere to the Code of Conduct and the ABAV plan.

Note: These documents are posted on our website for future reference.

Teachers will highlight that RTC is a community that values and promotes:

- high quality education in a safe, respectful and inclusive environment
- respect for oneself, for one another, for the learning environment and for the property of others
- student success and preparation for entering the workforce

COLLABORATION WITH PARENTS

Given that there are very few students at RTC who are younger than 18 years of age, our collaboration with parents is very limited. However, when minor students are registered, their parent:

- ✓ must read and co-sign the code of conduct document
- ✓ is informed that the ABAV plan on our website
- ✓ is assured that they can contact the administration or professional staff if there is an issue

PROCEDURES FOR MAKING A REPORT OR REGISTERING A COMPLAINT

Step 1

An incident of bullying and/or violence may be reported to the administration or a member of the staff:

- verbally (in-person or by phone) or
- in writing (by email or via a letter)

The Act Respecting the National Student Ombudsman states that in the case of sexual violence, the complainant may file their complaint directly with the Regional Student Ombudsman using the link below:

<https://www.quebec.ca/en/education/prescolaire-primaire-et-secondaire/droits-eleve/report-an-act-of-sexual-violence-against-a-student>

Any student who witnesses an act of bullying and/or violence has a responsibility to report the incident to the administration– who has 10 working days to address the complaint.

Step 2

If after 10 working days the declarant is not satisfied with the administration’s actions, a complaint may be lodged with the English Montreal School Board via the Secretary General, Nathalie Lauziere at: nlauziere@emsb.qc.ca The Secretary General has 15 working days to address the complaint.

A written opinion on the merits of the complaint is provided and corrective measures deemed appropriate are proposed.

Step 3

If the declarant is dissatisfied with the opinion rendered by the Secretary General, or if it was not processed within fifteen (15) working days of receiving the complaint, or if the complaint concerns sexual violence, the student may refer their complaint to the Regional Student Ombudsman. The complaint must be made in writing. Link below.

<https://www.quebec.ca/en/education/prescolaire-primaire-et-secondaire/droits-eleve/report-an-act-of-sexual-violence-against-a-student>

The Regional Student Ombudsman will make an initial assessment of the complaint and may decide to refuse the complaint. This must be in writing. A decision must be made within twenty (20) working days. The person directly concerned by the complaint, or their immediate supervisor, have the right to be heard.

Complaints concerning sexual violence are processed on an urgent basis.

The Regional Student Ombudsman sends his opinion to the National Student Ombudsman who has five (5) working days to re-examine or confirm the Regional Student Ombudsman’s decision.

Step 4

The Regional Student Ombudsman informs the School Board of their decision. The School Board has ten (10) working days to inform the complainant and the Regional Student Ombudsman, in writing, of the actions it intends to take or of the grounds for any refusal to take action on a recommendation or conclusion.
